

Co-Applicants to Louisville Institute Grant Programs

Are you applying with a colleague to the Pastoral Study Project Grant? If yes, please follow the guidelines below:

Both applicants must establish an account which will enable you to submit your grant application materials online and will allow us to track your application requirements. Click here to establish or update an account.

The main contact person for the application (project director) should submit the following online:

- Applicant Information
- Core Question (1-3 sentences)
- Project Summary (200 words)
- Narrative statement
- Selective bibliography
- Copy of your current Curriculum Vitae or résumé
- Detailed budget and budget narrative
- Letter of Recommendation from Colleague
- Letter Assessing Project Feasibility
- Statement of Ministry Context
- Institutional Support Declaration

The co-applicant (coordinator) for the application should submit the following via email (klichty@louisville-institute.org):

- Copy of your current Curriculum Vitae or résumé
- Statement of Ministry Context
- Letter of Recommendation from Colleague***
- Institutional Support Declaration***

*Please send the names and email addresses for the persons writing/signing your Letter of Recommendation from Colleague and Institutional Support Declaration. We will email your recommenders directly with information on how to submit their letters.